LONG WAITED FOR SPEECH COMES

Speaker Clark Attacks Repeal of Canal Free Tolls But Praises Wilson

SAYS WILSON SINCERE. REPEAL IS UNAMERICAN

Denies Hotly Speech is First Gun in Campaign for 1916 Presidency

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Speaker Clark delivered his long awaited speech in the House against the exemption clause of the Panama Canal act this afternoon, but it was tempered by strong praise of President Wilson. Speaker Clark unqualifiedly admitted that there was no doubt of the president's sincerity in his appeal for the repeal of the free tolls clause, but insisted that such action would be a flat repudiation of the Democratic platform pledge, and an "un-American and utterly unjustifiable thing." As for his personal relations with the president, Clark said they always had been pleasant and he hoped they would continue so. Reports that Clark was actuated in opposing the repeal as an opening gun for his candidacy for the presidency in 1916, was hotly denied. He said: "If President Wilson makes a success of his administration, he will be renominated and re-elected. If he makes a failure, which God forbid, a Democratic nomination would not be worth having."

"I entertain genuine affection for every member of the House," he continued. "Some of them will regret what they have said about me when this fever cools down. I have supported President Wilson until we were called upon to bolt the Democratic platform, which I absolutely refuse to do."

Clark said in part: "There is no personal issue between the president and myself. There has not been at any time and I trust there never will be. I have at no time uttered one word of criticism of the president, and so far as I am informed, the president has at no time criticized me."

"In the nature of things a man who is worthy of holding a high position in the public service of the country must believe that other public servants are actuated by the same high, courageous, patriotic motives by which he believes himself to be moved. I have not at any time believed otherwise of the president, and I do not believe he has ever entertained any other opinion of those who opposed him in this measure."

"With the most of those who have asserted that I am seeking to disrupt the party, I wish to say that the wish is father to the thought. The fact that I am making this fight for the redemption of platform pledges may terminate my public career, but there are many things worse than being defeated for the speakership, congress or the presidency."

"I can be happy without any of these, in the love and affection of my wife and children, in the society of my books and in the cultivation of flowers and trees."

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The climax of the canal toll repeal fight was expected late today, voting being scheduled to begin at 5:45 o'clock. Two roll calls were on the program, one on the motion to re-commit the Sims resolution, and one on the passage of the final measure itself. A third roll call was thought to be barely possible on the proposition that the president be empowered to fix or remove tolls or refer the Anglo-American controversy on the Panama Canal treaty to The Hague.

LOS ANGELES, March 31.—The men of the local "army" of the unemployed, which has dwindled to ninety-two members through desertions of small parties going forward, were placed under arrest today for violating a city ordinance by sleeping in the Los Angeles river bed. Twenty-five policemen arrested the "army," which marched peacefully to jail, singing "America." As they entered the building, the "Mar-seilles" hymn was struck up. The "army" had been warned by Chief of Police Sebastian to leave the river bed camp, but at the expiration of the given time the men still remained on the spot.

FLORENCE PEET IS COMING TO SANTA ANA

Will Conduct High-Class Cooking School Under Auspices of "Register"

WILL BEGIN MONDAY, APRIL 6, ELKS' HALL

Learn How to Keep House and Prepare Nourishing and Economical Foods

Much interest is being manifested in household circles over the fact that Miss Florence M. Peet, noted lecturer and famous cook, is to conduct a school of methods for the housekeepers and cooks of Santa Ana, along educational lines. This undertaking is to surpass in every respect anything of this kind ever attempted in Santa Ana. It is to be a high class proposition throughout. Miss Peet's success along this line of work makes her exceedingly popular. She has recently been conducting cooking schools in a number of Kansas towns where she had appeared last year, and has talked day after day to crowded houses.

Miss Peet has a faculty of making warm friends wherever she goes. Her pleasing personality makes for the success of her cooking schools as much as her ability as a lecturer. She is well informed in all matters pertaining to housekeeping and cookery and has an entertaining and interesting manner of presenting such subjects. She explains all of her points so clearly and forcibly that the most inexperienced cannot fail to be helped, and those women who have been keeping house for years and are considered very fine cooks also listen to Miss Peet with much pleasure and profit and with unqualified approval of her methods.

Explains Digestive Foods
Miss Peet is an enthusiast on the subject of pure, wholesome foods and good cooking, and endeavors to arouse women, wherever she speaks, to the value of knowing how to choose the most nourishing foods and how to prepare them most wholesomely. She explains just why certain foods contain more nutriment than others, and why certain cookery methods bring out the digestible qualities of foods better than certain other methods. She says many foods which are considered indigestible are made so by being improperly cooked and she will demonstrate just how they should be prepared.

Each day of the cooking school, which is to be held in Elks Hall, will be brim full of interest. The sessions are to be held in the afternoon at 2:30, but each morning Miss Peet will be at the hall glad to meet her old friends as well as new ones, and will be more than glad to have special household problems presented at this time, to which she will give personal attention.

She will tell women why their bread is not always good, why their pie crust is not always flaky, why their cakes are sometimes "sad," and the whole family is sad in consequence. In fact, those who have met Miss Peet say she can solve any household riddle propounded to her to the satisfaction of the most perplexed housewife.

Will Give Away Recipes
Miss Peet has many old and famous recipes as well as many new and original ones. They are all thoroughly tested and perfectly reliable and Miss Peet guarantees success, not occasionally but every time, if these recipes are followed accurately. She will give them away to all who attend the cooking school, and will explain every step she takes in following these recipes.

She will make many helpful suggestions for everyday menus and will each day during the cooking school week, make and serve to her guests, many dainty dishes. She will make the kind of doughnuts children love and can eat without unpleasant consequences, and also will make delicious pies. Other of Miss Peet's cookery ideas will be suggested in tomorrow's issue of the Register.

Ohio Coal Situation is Serious; England Also Faces Same Kind of Problem

'HANDSOME JACK' IS GUILTY OF MURDER

Jury Convicted on First Ballot; New Trial to Be Asked by Defendant

CHICAGO, March 31.—"Handsome Jack" Koettters was found guilty today of murdering Mrs. Emma Kraft of Cincinnati, and was sentenced to life imprisonment. He was arrested in San Francisco two months ago. The jury, which retired yesterday, took thirteen ballots, voting for conviction on the first ballot, the other ballots referring to the penalty to be inflicted.

Koettters turned pale when the verdict was announced and his aged parents and sisters wept. Attorney Cooper gave notice of his intention to ask for a new trial.

Civil Government Opens April 1 Automatically in Uncle Sam's Canal Territory

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Panama Canal enters upon another phase of progress tomorrow when civil government will be established on Uncle Sam's ten-mile strip from ocean to ocean. Colonel George W. Goethals, who as chief engineer during construction of the big ditch has been autocrat of its administration, is to be civil governor. Ever since the United States undertook building of the zone, it has been technically under military rule. A commission of government had, actual administration authority, but practically all the commissioners were military officers. Colonel Goethals has been supreme in authority. During the building of the canal it has often been said that Goethals' administration was required if an employee wanted to requisition a pencil.

The new civil government comes automatically in effect tomorrow in pursuance of a proclamation issued two months ago by President Wilson. The Isthmian Canal Commission likewise dies. The Panama Canal law, approved August 24, 1912—the exemption from tolls clause of which is now under consideration in Congress—makes the President the real ruler of Panama, through a governor and such other persons as he may elect. The President has told Goethals that he is to have a free hand in his administration, which is taken to mean that the civil governor will have nearly 2500 jobs at his disposal. There is no civil service on the canal either.

In his new job Goethals' foremost duty is to make the canal ready for use. He was given the place because it has been his ambition when the canal was completed and the engineering and construction forces had done with their work, that he might actually have some hand in the starting of commerce through the waterway. Of course the task of rearranging the administration in the zone is an enormous one, but that of drilling the canal employees in their work and of making the canal a success will from the start to the finish be greater. On his recent visit here, the Colonel made it plain that he intends to go slowly in rearranging the zone government. By law, all executive orders and regulations will be continued in force after tomorrow, so that the switch from a commission to a one-man government will be accomplished with no apparent wrench. Speculation was rife here today as to whether Goethals plans to continue the semi-socialistic, paternalistic scheme of caring for canal employees under the new government. Heretofore the employee was furnished by the government with a residence; he was sold food supplies at cost, given free medical attendance and free schools, while every effort was made to encourage establishment of churches and recreation buildings. Needless to say, there were no taxes at all.

Goethals thinks the canal will be in running order by July 1—that is, it will be constructively complete. But the chief engineer wants his operating force, the men who handle the giant locks, the towing locomotives, and other delicate machinery to be thoroughly drilled in their respective jobs before the canal is thrown open to the commerce of the world. That may take several months.

Army Row Temporarily Shelved During Asquith's Appeal to Electorate

LONDON, March 31.—With Foreign Minister Sir Edward Grey acting temporarily as the Liberal-Labor Irish alliance leader, the second reading of the Home Rule bill began in the House today. Walter Long, Conservative leader, urged the rejection of the measure on the ground that it could not be considered in the absence of Premier Asquith, who is temporarily out of Parliament, pending a by-election. The Home Rule party, being in the majority, defeated Long's motion.

SETTLEMENT OF ARMY ROW TO WAIT ON BY-ELECTION

The fight of the government with the army officers appeared likely to be delayed until Premier Asquith, following his resignation and re-election, shall have assumed the war secretaryship in addition to his other duties.

Investigation of the customs service is in progress today, following reports that a number of Maxim guns packed as tea had been landed at Belfast by the anti-Home Rule faction.

MRS. DROWN ACQUITTED OF HUSBAND'S MURDER

OAKLAND, March 31.—Mrs. Millie Drown was acquitted by a jury on the first ballot after a few minutes' consideration of the charge of murdering her husband, Archer Drown.

When the verdict was announced Mrs. Drown screamed hysterically, threw up her arms and fell forward into the arms of Peter Crosby, the defense attorney. Cheers for the woman when the verdict was read were promptly hushed by the court bailiffs.

TRUCE MAY BE GRANTED AT TORREON

Rumored that Federals Ask for Armistice With View to Surrendering

CARRANZA SAID TO HAVE OUTLINED CONDITIONS

He Would Avoid Bloodshed as Federals Might Hold Out Indefinitely

EL PASO, March 31.—Reports of an armistice between the rebels and federals at Torreon to enable Federal Commander Velasco to negotiate terms of surrender are current here. Officers close to General Carranza partly confirmed the stories, but Carranza himself would not talk. But it is said on good authority that General Villa has put the proposition up to him that hostilities have been suspended meantime and that Carranza has already replied with an outline of terms for the surrender of Torreon.

FEDERALS TOOK REFUGE IN TWO CUARTELS

JUAREZ, March 31.—A telegram received in Juarez late yesterday was to the effect that the remaining 2000 federal troops in Torreon had taken refuge in two cuarteles in the western part of the city and were holding out there.

The cuarteles are set in a basin, the only entrance being a pass which is easily commanded by a machine gun. Because of the steep slope of the hills surrounding the part of the city that the federals hold, it is impossible for Villa's guns to shell the federal position with cannon.

The federals would be able to hold out for a long time, providing they have sufficient food supplies to sustain them.

TORREON STILL HOLDING OUT. WAS AN EARLY MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Torreon is still holding out today against the Constitutionalists, and the Huertistas do not believe it will be taken, according to an early message today to Mexican Chief of Affairs Algarra from Foreign Minister Rojas at Mexico City, who stated that General Velasco is in a position to hold off the rebels indefinitely.

LANDE CONFESSES TO WHITE SLAVERY

But Judge Refuses Sentence Till Convinced Man is "Real White Slaver"

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Though Nicholas J. Lande pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Dooling to violating the Mann white slave law, the court refused to sentence him until investigation convinced him that Lande was a real "white slaver."

Lande admitted that he and Miss Rosa Harris came here together from Providence, R. I. Miss Harris induced him to make the trip, he said, and paid the fares. Later she appeared against him before the federal grand jury.

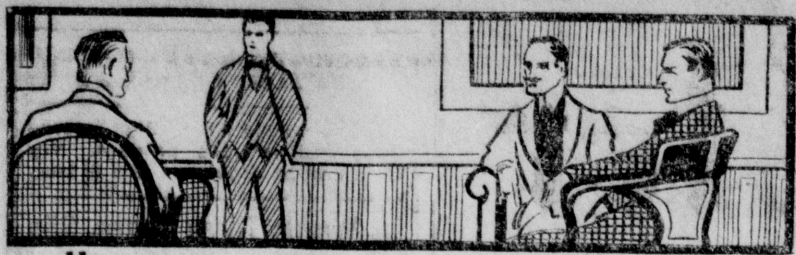

Judge Dooling intimated that while he was opposed to any let-up in white slave prosecution, he did not think the law should be invoked in cases where vice was not commercialized.

GRINNELL PARTY'S FINE COLLECTION FOR STATE MUSEUM

BERKELEY, March 31.—Joseph Grinnell of the California Museum of Vertebrate Zoology has made public the results of an excursion down the Colorado River for the study of bird and animal life.

Grinnell's party braved in a small boat the whirlpools and rocks of the swift stream and returned with data on the habits of 150 kinds of birds and forty-three varieties of mammals. The explorers found that the saguaro, or giant cactus, supposed to be known only to Arizona, was to be found on the California side as well and they made discoveries concerning birds which make their homes in holes in this plant.

The expedition, which required three months, was financed largely by Miss Annie Alexander of Oakland, founder of the museum. The collection now contains 20,000 mammals, 25,000 birds and 5000 reptiles.

HOVERS ABOUT $40,000 MARK

This Is Last Day to Decide if Local Post Office Enters
First Class

This is the last day of the fiscal postal year that will determine whether or not Santa Ana's post office advances from a second-class to a first-class office. Postmaster Shaw is satisfied that the year's receipts are going to foot up beyond the $40,000 mark, which mark must be reached before an office can enter the first class.

The growth of the Santa Ana office has been gradual, extending over a period of years, and to reach the $40,000 receipts an increase of about $3750 was necessary. Without any boosting toward that particular end, the local office is believed to have passed the mark.

Postmaster Shaw has steadfastly kept down any fictitious growth, and with every dollar's receipts being from legitimate sales the chances of the office to gain the coveted advancement are as good as they could be. The growth of the post office has been in accordance with the growth of the city.

ORANGE COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS DO WELL

Last week Miss Clara Witt, who has been studying in the Orange County Business College during the past year, completed her course in bookkeeping and shorthand, and was placed at once by President McCormac of the College in the law office of J. H. Ryckman, Higgins Bldg., Los Angeles, as stenographer.

The friends of Mr. J. Roy Adams of El Modena will be gratified to know that he was recently promoted to the position of secretary of Imperial Water Company, Imperial, Calif., at a salary of $175 per month. Mr. Adams graduated from the Orange County Business College in 1909 and immediately accepted a position as stenographer for the above company. He has remained with the company ever since and has been promoted from $75 per month, his starting salary, to the salary he now receives. Mr. Adams' example should be a lesson to other young men who may not be so persevering in their undertakings and consequently not so successful. Efficiency and faithfulness have placed Mr. Adams in his enviable position.

Miss Willamette Claypool, daughter of the Santa Fe agent at Orange, accepted a position in the Acme Sign Co., Los Angeles, secured for her by President McCormac of the Orange County Business College, in whose Los Angeles school—the National Business College—Miss Claypool took her course in bookkeeping.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat and Take Salts
for Backache or Bladder Trouble

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must waste them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel pneumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Advertisement.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS REDLANDS TOMORROW

Redlands University's team will meet the ball tossers of the local high school tomorrow afternoon. The Redlands team is doing a vacation week trip playing a string of teams between Redlands and San Diego. Yesterday they played Fullerton a ten inning 3-3 "set-to;" today the Orange team is being played and tomorrow Redlands will try its luck against Santa Ana.

The line-up of the local team will likely be a new one for this year. If "Jug" Walters can make his peace with the Board of Control, and it is believed he can, he will be worked at first and Fred Carrillo sent back to his old job at second. Snow will likely get a try out in one of the game. His ground covering and his holding onto the pill ought to get him a job. If he falls down it will be on his batting.

The rest of the line-up will be about as in the other games, with Carver at third, Pete Duhart at short, Lee Brown with the "big mit," and Irvine and "Big Spud" in the field. Who will officiate on the slab? That hasn't been settled, though Shallenberger may start it.

The game tomorrow should be class from start to finish. Last year Redlands beat Santa Ana on the Lincoln street grounds, 3 to 4, with the locals filling the bases in the ninth inning and being stopped by the Redlands shortstop pulling off a one-handed catch of big league stuff kind.

The Santa Ana boys are going after the Redlanders to wipe out last year's defeat and add another scalp to their belt.

FORTY CLOWNS WITH SELLS FLOTO CIRCUS

Once upon a time a circus conducted a voting contest as to what formed the chief amusement of those persons who had paid their money to see the performance. The result was that the vote of popularity went to the clowns by about a majority of four to one. And for that reason, when the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill (himself) come to this city, Tuesday, April 7, the aggregation will bring with it a company of forty clowns.

And forty men whose work is that of bringing the laugh, is a pretty large number. The usual big theatrical company, including principals and chorus, rarely numbers more than forty persons. Yet that is the number of fun-makers who will appear with the Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill attraction, and many of them are famous in the world of clowndom.

For instance, there is Spader Johnson, originator of many of the great clown acts that have been copied by nearly every circus today. There is "Shorty" Maynard, as small as his name indicates, and "Shorty" Maynard can make a person laugh even without his make-up. There is Fred Biggs and Harry Shinn, and thirty-six others who have done little else all their

PENNSYLVANIA SYSTEM LETS OUT 500 MORE MEN

PITTSBURG, March 31.—Five hundred men employed in the shops of the Pennsylvania railroad in this district were dismissed by the company yesterday. This action, the company officials say, is in line with the retrenchment policy of the road. It was announced that ten passenger trains would be withdrawn from service in the Pittsburgh territory tomorrow.

HANGING EVERY FRIDAY OF APRIL IN CALIFORNIA

SAN QUENTIN, March 31.—Unless Governor Johnson should interfere, there will be a hanging every Friday next month. Heretofore Gov. Johnson has not been disposed to interfere with the law's course in capital punishment cases. Thomas Green, a cowboy, is scheduled to die April 3. He shot the cashier of a Riverside country bank while he and another cowboy were holding it up. The execution of Jerry Allen is set for April 10. He murdered his wife at Williams because she was an inmate of a questionable resort and refused to leave the life. Leo Nan Chin is to hang April 17. He quarreled with a fellow Chinese, ambushed and shot the latter dead in San Joaquin county. Louis Bundy's death is fixed for April 24. Bundy is the youth who killed a boy employed as a drug store messenger, to get money with which to buy his sweetheart a Christmas present.

D. D. Prescription has been of incalculable value to me. I was covered with eczema from head to foot when I began using your remedies. I could get no relief, though I tried a thousand means. I applied but two bottles of the Prescription; a cure was effected in a very short time, in less

ATHLETE'S HORSE IS SOME ATHLETE, TOO

(By Staff Correspondent.)

ORANGE, March 31.—Errol Watson of Olive, a student in Orange High School, figured in a runaway last evening in which his buggy was totally wrecked. Watson had been practicing basketball at the Athletic Club, leaving his horse and buggy hitched in a shed at the high school. He returned to drive home shortly after 7 o'clock in the evening. When he attempted to put the horse on his horse the animal jerked away and ran over sidewalk and curbing across the street and into a neighboring yard. The buggy was shattered beyond repair.

A social afternoon at the home of Mrs. Della F. Bishop on Fairhaven avenue was enjoyed yesterday by the OLD-TIME COLD CURE— DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

GIVEN TIME TO ADJUST STOCK TO NEW LAW

Net Container Act Going Into Effect Tomorrow to Be Enforced

Grocers of Orange county are to be given a short time of grace in which to adjust their present stock of goods to the provisions of the net container act, which goes into effect tomorrow. This was the decision at a conference held this morning by District Attorney L. A. West and County Sealer George McPhee.

McPhee has been all over the county and has explained the law to all grocers, market proprietors and others dealing in foodstuffs and commodities intended to be eaten or drunk by human beings, except articles to be used for medicinal purposes. While the merchants cannot plead ignorance of the law, many of them have upon their shelves goods bought without any attention being paid to the on-coming date of enforcement of the law. Los Angeles and other counties have concluded to give the dealers a chance to dispose of those goods, but the rule everywhere is to enforce the law strictly so far as it concerns new goods.

On McPhee's suggestion most of the grocers have taken the matter up with their wholesalers, and many of the grocers have stated positively that they will not receive from the wholesalers goods that are not marked in accordance with the provisions of the law. A pound package must contain a pound of commodity, not the weight of the cardboard box or other container not to be included in the amount marked upon the package. McPhee has familiarized himself with the stocks of the various grocers and will be able to distinguish between old and new goods.

McPhee is confident that the grocers are all anxious to observe the law, and he is counting upon their co-operation to get the best results.

It is stated in a San Francisco dispatch that while some manufacturers have arranged to label their packages with the net quantity of the contents, the new statute, it is said, has been overlooked by many.

Goods coming into California from the East and from foreign countries do not bear the designation required by the net container act, and the wholesale or retail manufacturers handling them will have to mark them with a rubber stamp or otherwise, stating the net weight, measure or number of the contents.

SURVEYORS AT WORK ON GOLF COURSE OF O. C. COUNTRY CLUB

Rapid progress is being made on the grounds and golf course of the Orange County Country Club on Newport Bay, overlooking the palisades. The golf architecture is in charge of Mr. William Walton of Pasadena. Mr. Walton has laid out practically all the important golf courses in Southern California, besides numerous courses throughout the East. The first line of holes on the Country Club property has been run and the second line will be finished in a day or so.

A force of nine men is working on the grounds, clearing off and leveling the surface of rocks, weeds and rubbish. It is expected that fifteen men will be at work by the end of the week and that the golf course will be ready for play by early summer.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage
Tea Recipe

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready to use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

R. R. TARIFFS ARE SUSPENDED TO JULY 30

Commission Holds in Abeyance
Division of Rates Said to Be the Same as Rebates

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today suspended until July 30 all the new tariffs filed by the railroads, eliminating allowances to industrial railroads, with the exception of those affecting the United States Steel Corporation and other iron and steel companies. These were permitted to stand. About four thousand of the tariffs were suspended.

The suspended tariffs that would become effective at midnight tonight, were submitted in compliance with the findings of industrial railroads ease, when it was held that allowances and divisions of rates made by trunk lines with certain eastern roads operated by the steel and iron companies, were equivalent to rebates and ought to be discontinued. Only those industrial lines heard by the commission are allowed to suspend tariffs affecting lines heard by the commission provides for hearings, but sets no date.

TO MARK SITE WHERE GEO. WASHINGTON WAS VICTOR

TRENTON, March 31.—Twelve obelisks of granite will mark the route of Washington's movement around the British left at Trenton and thence to Princeton, one of the revolution's most important strategies. The Sons of the Revolution have let contracts for the erection of the markers, which will be eight feet tall and set with the bronze legend: "Route of Washington's march by night from Trenton to Princeton and Victory, January 3, 1777. Erected 1914."

It is history that Lord Cornwallis retired on this memorable night and said: "We'll catch the old fox in the morning." However, in the morning Washington was at the rear of Cornwallis, ready to meet the British reinforcements coming from New Brunswick. This force was thrown into confusion and fled. Washington's little force was too exhausted to pursue the advantage and it retired to Morristown and went into winter quarters. The obelisks will be placed in position late in April or early May. Some of them will stand in open fields while others will stand on the side of roads still in use. Eventually, the Sons of the Revolution will put up obelisks all the way to Morristown.

TRUTHFUL ADVERTISING SLOGAN IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, March 31.—"Promotion of Truthful Advertising" is the purpose of a distinctly new type of organization now being formed here by members of the Retail Merchants' Board of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce. W. J. Noble of the board explains the evils the organization is designed to abolish in the following interview.

"One of the evils to be eliminated is the inflation of values, telling the people that an article is a $100 value and advertising it for sale at $37.50. This word 'value' as used in this connection is one of the most deceiving words in advertising. You might as well advertise a loaf of bread as a $100 value, with the excuse that a starving castaway on a desert island would value a loaf of bread at that sum. The time has come to call a halt on the scramble for preferment by means of one merchant trying to outdo the other in extravagant claims."

A majority of the merchants are said to favor the movement.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE BEGINS 1914 SEASON

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The Pacific Coast Baseball League opened its 1914 season today with games at San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento. Despite the inroads made on the various clubs by the Federal League, each of the six clubs professed to present a stronger line-up than in 1913. The season closes October 25. The Portland club, winner of the 1913 pennant, opened at Sacramento; Oakland at Los Angeles and Venice at San Francisco.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

The Register is impressed with the value of a suggestion contained in an article in the "Southwest Contractor," of Los Angeles, concerning the resistance of willows to stream erosion.

In view of the facts set forth by the Contractor article it would seem well worth while considering the advisability of planting rows of willows along the banks of the Santa Ana river, especially along the diked parts of the stream.

Not only would they strengthen the dikes and banks, but they would change the scenery along the stream from ugliness to beauty. Here is the article from the Contractor:

"The effectiveness of willow trees as a means of holding streams to a given channel should be more generally recognized. This tree is used very extensively throughout the Middle West for this purpose, but is not as common in California as one might expect it to be, where the prevalence of sandy soil is the primary cause of so great an erosion of stream banks, and the easy breaking into new channels when the volume of flood waters cannot be taken care of by the choked-up channels.

"That rows of willows will effectively hold even the most sandy bank is proved by the resistance such a barrier presented to the swollen Los Angeles river at Ivanhoe on the Glendale line of the Pacific Electric Railroad where it crosses the river. Here the river banks are intermittently lined with willows for some distance along the banks of the stream. Just above the railroad bridge, however, the ordinary channel was not wide enough to care for the unusual volume of flood waters that swept down during the February storm. At a point about 1000 feet above the bridge the river cut a new channel through a break in the row of willows, sweeping in a wide curve to a point some 2000 feet north of the bridge, ate its way through the high earth embankment on which the railroad bed was built, but was prevented from further passage down the artificial channel by a double row of willows below the railroad right of way.

"This row of willows turned the river southward to the regular channel under the bridge, but in seeking this outlet the river swept away a long stretch of the railroad embankment, the long trestle approach and also the bridge and leaving a quarter-mile gap in the trackage that is now being replaced with a continuous pile trestle of heavier construction. Had the double row of willows been above instead of immediately below the right of way, it would have saved both earth embankment and trestle approach.

"The planting of willows should, however, not be indiscriminate or their presence will do more harm than good through restricting the channel to so narrow a width that it cannot carry the waters during the rainy season. Placed where they are needed they are beneficial, but where not required present an obstruction that merely aggravates the choking of channels.

"The state department of engineering has taken up the planting of willow trees as a protection to the weak spots in the levees along the Sacramento river and will experiment extensively with their use on Brannon and Sherman islands, at Oak Knoll and Paradise Bend. The work outlined for the first experiment is estimated by the Board of Control to cost $6000, half of which will be borne by the property owners and the balance by the state."

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF THE EVOLUTION OF THE LEMON TREE

Chas. H. Hamburg, a prominent citrus grower and nurseryman of Whittier, who has resided in the Quaker City for 26 years, in purchasing a property in the North Whittier Heights citrus land subdivision from Edwin G. Hart, manager and general sales agent of the property, during the past few days, brought out the fact that he had taken the first lemon tree to the Whittier district—the tree from which buds were secured to plant many of the celebrated groves not only of that world famous citrus section but of other districts of the state.

During the pioneer days of Whittier, Mr. Hamburg and Fred Corzell opened a nursery business in that city, where they sold all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees that the new settlers might wish to plant. They purchased most of their earlier stock of trees from nurserymen in Los Angeles, and among one lot of trees purchased from a nurseryman on the corner of Main and First streets in 1888, they secured a lemon tree for $2.50, which was a few days later sold to P. O. Noker of Whittier and planted on his home place on West Philadelphia street. Mr. Noker still owns and resides on the place on which the lemon tree was planted, and the tree is still bearing fruit, even though it receives very little, if any, care in the way of cultivation, irrigation or fertilizing. The tree proved to be of the Eureka lemon variety, and during the early days of Whittier was noted as a prolific bearer and an exceptionally fine fruit.

Mr. Hamburg later secured budwood from this tree, from which he raised some nursery stock and set out an orchard east of the Union High School on Philadelphia street, on a 5-acre piece of land which he purchased for $900. He later sold the orchard to Mrs. Strong, now a wealthy lady of Whittier, for $6500, who in turn sold the grove for $15,000, after having sold four lots off of the five acres. The grove is now owned by Frank McGee and is one of the many profitable lemon orchards for which Whittier is famous.

Mr. Hamburg still resides on the five-acre home place which he purchased when he first went to Whittier, and which is only a short distance from where the first lemon tree taken to Whittier was planted; but he expects to subdivide this property into city lots and dispose of it, inasmuch as he has planned to build a new home on the property which he has purchased in the North Whittier Heights subdivision, which lies about two miles northeast of Whittier.

After Dinner Chats With Apricot Growers

By J. G. Berneicke, M. D.

Ten cent price predicted. Eastern business good. Money Easy.

When a good business man, well acquainted with Eastern business conditions, who has just come from Chicago to meet with his business connections here, with an eye to getting next season's business, tells you these things, you will sit up and take notice.

One of our Eastern brokers, from Chicago, expressed himself substantially this way: "The market is perfectly cleaned up. With present crop indications (which he believes point to a good crop), the opening price will be 10 cents a pound for dried apricots. If, however, the crop turns out to be less than present indications warrant, the price will advance correspondingly. 'If, in thirty days, crop conditions have changed, my opinion will change accordingly.' When questioned about business conditions in the East he said: 'A year ago when you asked a man as to business, he would reply: 'Business is bad.' Now when you ask him he says: 'Business is fine.' As to money conditions, he said that money is easy. 'Whereas I had to pay 4 1/2 per cent on call loans I now pay 4 per cent, though I have at times had it as low as 3 1/2 per cent.' Two weeks ago I told our growers that the opening price would not fall below 8 cents a pound, even if the crop be very large. I am pleased to get this strong confirmation from so good an authority. I wish to say this, however, this view is that of the Eastern broker, and not that of the Eastern grower. The latter also has his lines out, and is now asking for quotations on the 1914 crop, suggesting 1 1/2 cents per pound. The grower is another factor in the game, to whom the speculator gives no consideration, but the broker does. What then, will the grower do? He has his choice of yielding to the wiles of the speculator, or holding firm for a price which the Eastern broker thinks would be fair to the grower and the consumer. Knowing what the Eastern broker thinks of the situation, and knowing also the apricot growers as a class, I size the matter up this way: Present indications are not for a bumper crop, but for an average good crop in the state. If no loss in the crop occurs, and such a crop is realized then the growers will have the opportunity to realize 10 cents per pound, and the organized growers no doubt will realize it. The outside or independent growers will sell all the way from 8 cents up to 10 cents, according to the degree of intelligence and information they possess. Although, according to market and crop conditions already developed the opening price could be and should be 10 cents, the speculator with the assistance of some of the independent growers will depress that price below 10 cents. Our Eastern broker touched upon the importance of thinning the fruit, and he said truly that the grower who thins his fruit will have just as much in weight, and will gain on his grades. According to late information from the Exchange, standards sold at 10 1/2 cents and fancy at 15 cents, a difference of 4 1/2 cents between the extremes. Surely this is well worth looking after. I will correct here two mistakes in previous articles. The Alameda county growers received 10 cents to 12 1/2 cents last year, not 10 cents to 10 1/2 cents. I said that summer pruning was possible last year in my orchard, because all of the fruit was born on the inside, not on the outside of the trees. In fact the idea of cutting back is to have only inside fruit; so that having done it the past year, summer pruning will become possible again this year without loss of fruit in an advanced stage. The heavy setting of fruit found just now in some orchards is likely to be thinned out by nature in the next three or four weeks by means of the rot, if we have much weather like this of the 26th of March. If, however, favorable weather prevents nature's thinning out process, it would become necessary for the grower to do it if he would have desirable fruit. And remember that it can be done in part at least by cutting back. It is never too late to do this. Hand thinning, as done in the North, is expensive, but pays where fruit is raised for the canneries.

The board of directors of our association appointed a committee of two to interview the members in reference to reorganizing and affiliating with the Exchange. Mr. Jeffrey, secretary of the Exchange, has been invited to present the case of the Exchange to our growers at our annual meeting to be held on the second Saturday in April, of which the growers will receive notice. It is to be hoped that every member who possibly can will be present. If this step of joining the Exchange is taken by the association it will be, in my opinion, the most forward step since we organized four years ago. Members who wish to see this step taken are requested to sign the agreement to be circulated by the committee. As I see it, joining the Exchange would mean a wider and better market for our fruit; ruling out competition against each other by the associations; a firmer, steadier and better price and earlier money; and cutting overhead expenses.

As an association we have had four years experience, three of them very satisfactory, and one of them nearly disastrous. We paid the price of unpreparedness and inexperience in 1911, but we have learned our lesson. We have made a success as an association in spite of heavy handicaps, and for one am ready to drop some of them and move forward to better things.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Your Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

ANNUAL EBELL LUNCHEON

Plans Being Made for Biggest Social Event of Ebell Club Season

The Ebell committee having charge of the arrangements for the Ebell luncheon on Saturday, April 25, at Elks Hall, have plans well formulated for the affair, which promises to be the social event of the club year. The entertainment committee, with Mrs. E. L. Morrison as chairman, had a meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, and outlined plans for their part of the work, that of preparing the menu.

The house committee, Mrs. W. L. Grubb, chairman, and the flower committee, Mrs. J. E. Liebig, chairman, will superintend the arranging and decorating of the banquet room.

The keynote for the afternoon will be "Sociability"—a get-together, get-acquainted meeting. The Ebell members are asked to make their reservations for the luncheon not later than April 18. Tickets may be purchased from the members of the entertainment committee, also at E. B. Smith's jewelry store, after Monday, April 13.

The luncheon will be served from 12:30 to 2 p.m., with the election of officers occupying the hour from 2 to 3 o'clock, followed by an entertaining program. Mrs. Zoe Ballard Fuller of Los Angeles will read "Hindle Wakes," by Stanley Houghton, and "The Eldest Son," by John Galsworthy.

MONDAY CLUB WAS HOST

Wives of Members and Others at Social and Literary Meeting Last Night

The second meeting of the Monday club during its present season was held last night at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Prince L. Tople, 320 South Main. Several of the wives of members of the club assisted Mrs. Tople in preparations for the meeting and also in entertaining and serving after the program. The assisting ladies were Mrs. McMath, Mrs. Dugan, Mrs. Simons, Mrs. Ratcliffe, Mrs. A. B. Gardner, Pink and white Man-a-Cochet roses were used in vases throughout the house.

The paper of the evening, "The Origin of Our Common Vegetables," was a most interesting one, the author, A. J. Perkins, presenting the subject in a decidedly clever way. The paper elicited animated and lengthy discussion in which both members and guests joined. Following the literary program, Mrs. Tople and the ladies aiding her served refreshments in three courses on small tables at which groups of members and visitors enjoyed pleasant chat over the delicious viands.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Tople those present, including the members of the club and their wives, the wives of absent members, and three guests of the club, were the following: Messrs. and Mesdames E. H. McMath, E. M. Nealey, Fred Staff, C. E. Lammie, W. I. Stewart, C. S. Shaw, A. B. Gardner, Emory Ratcliffe, T. D. Knights, W. W. Simons, Osborne, Mrs. W. L. Dugan, D. G. Cole, J. A. Hankey, C. H. Stearns, A. J. Perkins, W. C. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul and Miss Jeanette McFadden were guests of the club.

Favorites in Concert Tonight

The concert to be given tonight at the United Presbyterian church by Mrs. Minna Roper Viersen, Mrs. Ruth Deardorff Shaw and Miss Grace Noy will no doubt attract a large audience of music lovers, as Mrs. Viersen and Mrs. Shaw have a firm hold on the affections of the people of Santa Ana. Not only are they successful artists in a musical way, but they have hosts of personal friends who will be glad to hear them again in a program of music. Mrs. Viersen's voice is said to be even more beautiful than when she was a favorite singer here, and Mrs. Shaw has become as much of a popular pianist in Los Angeles as she was in Santa Ana. Of Miss Noy, who assists in the program as reader, high praise is given by the press.

The concert is being given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Presbyterian church and the friends of the society will help to swell the attendance if it is hoped. A silver offering will be taken.

AMUSEMENTS

"An excellent show." These three words will express the general opinion of the bill at Clune's for the first three days of this week. Comedy and novelty are the main features of the bill.

The usual Pathe Weekly contributes to the educational part of the program. In the space of a few short minutes one sees with his own eyes, as it were, all the important happenings of the civilized world. "The Mesh of Her Hair" is the big picture number. "Movie" comedy is furnished by "A Change in Baggage Checks." To say that John Bunny is one of the two principal characters explains the comedy. It all happened because the baggage man mixed up the trunks. One male vaudeville artist got one female vaudeville artist's trunk and vice versa. Each wore the other's clothes and made such a hit that they decided to keep on wearing them. Not only that, but when they met each other, they discard the two trunks and travel with one big trunk, and instead of being two "Studies," they become one "Double." This reel will be shown again tonight.

"The Gladstone Family of Girls," as they are billed, entertain the audience in a highly satisfactory manner with "57 Varieties of Dancing." Perhaps there are hardly that many varieties but there are at least enough to keep a person busy counting them, and they are all good, too.

Campbell McKenzie, the Scotch violinist, is a wizard with this instrument as was shown by his playing last night.

Tonight and tomorrow night the same vaudeville numbers will be given as were given last night. The feature reel for tomorrow and Thursday night will be "The Master of the Mine."

The stories of the "Flood" and "Abraham's Sacrifice" will be given in moving pictures at the Temple Theater until Wednesday night daily at 3 and 8 p.m., after which the program changes and the second section of "The Drama of Creation" will be presented for one week at 3 and 8 p.m. daily, free to all.

U. S. DIPLOMAT AND SPOUSE BIKE OVER DEPARTMENTS OF FRANCE

Consul-General and Mrs. Thackera Start on 1200-Mile Bicycle Tour--Paris Admires and is Amazed

(By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS, Paris Correspondent of the United Press.)

PARIS, March 31.—Scorning the automobiles at their command, United States Consul-General and Mrs. Alexander M. Thackera will leave shortly on a six weeks' cycle trip of some 1200 or 1300 miles. The American consul-general, recently transferred from Berlin to Paris, is champion tourist of the world, court and diplomatic circle category, while Mrs. Thackera is a close second, grown children notwithstanding. Even Third Assistant Secretary of State, Alvey Augustus Adee, the only other distinguished bike-pushing statesman, is apparently outdone, for the consul-general's record on French roads alone is over 31,000 miles.

For eight years the Thackeras were stationed at Havre, where Mr. Thackera was consul, and each of their vacations was spent bicycle touring. There are but two departments in all France untraveled by their wheels, these being Brittany and Calais. Those who see the Thackeras only at the brilliant state banquets and receptions of official Paris would not recognize the distinguished couple in the very plainly-dressed bikers of the country roads, dusty and tired, but happy. Tyrant Style slinks powerless before them and Solid Comfort dictates instead.

Before starting on the long ride the Thackeras always map out their itinerary in every detail. This they adhere to religiously throughout the trip, taking their own time, however, in covering the distances. Experience gained on many such outings has taught them exactly how much they can do comfortably and just what to expect under any and all sorts of conditions. Small cases attached to the machines furnish storage room for the necessary toilet articles and a tool kit contains all the necessities for repairing punctures and the like. The consul-general is an expert bicycle repairer.

A day's program is about as follows: Up at 6 a. m. Breakfast at some quaint country inn—they are nearly all good in France, by the way. Follows the morning ride along roads always in splendid condition and abounding in views. The mid-day halt, wash-up, lunch, rest—all at one other delightful inn where the host is the cook and knows his job altogether well. If the day be hot this halt is proportionately long, the afternoon ride coming in the cool of the day and through the magnificently long twilight. Afterwards they have dinner at a third inn, excellent and picturesque as were the others. Finally, after a strolling along the cool, silent, shadowy country road for a breath of the fine air and a glimpse at the stars, they go early to bed and a ready, dreamless sleep. For during the day they have covered some 35 or 40 miles. It is a simple life! No Trouville or Deauville, the French Newport, for them. No downy-cushioned limousines. No brilliantly lighted ballrooms, midnight suppers composed of indigestibles, or gambling casinos at ultra-fashionable summer resorts. Their whole vacation is given up—not occasionally, but every day.

PARIS is amazed at the thorough democracy of the Thackeras; it is so charming. The consul-general says that America has never had here a more democratic representative. At the same time the Thackeras maintain this position with the greatest of tact and dignity; in short, they have made a big hit here.

RUBBERNECKS ROUTED BY 'PHONE INVENTION

DENVER, March 31.—M. D. Schaefermeyer has perfected an invention which he says will do away with "rubbernecks" on party telephone lines. An indicator above the telephone discloses the fact that the line is busy. Should an effort be made to listen while others are conversing, the interrupter will hear is the busy signal.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

There was a limited demand for strawberries yesterday morning, and the supply was limited with the result that quotations were firm, and some extra fancy berries sold as high as 12 cents. The average price was nearer 6 cents. Owing to the rain on Sunday picking was light, and caused the shortage of the morning. A few raspberries arrived and sold at 12 to 15 cents a basket. Logans were also reported in from the Imperial valley, and moved fairly well. Outside of this there were no real features in the fruit world. Apricots are expected within the next two or three weeks from Imperial Valley, if the weather holds warm. Should they come it would establish a record for early production. Reports from the north state that cherries are growing rapidly, and will mature in a few weeks sufficient for commercial shipping. The crop outlook is very favorable on all varieties.

Eggs were in very good demand and the quotation on them advanced to 22 cents. Receipts for two days totaled only 646 cases. The northern market was firm and unchanged. On butter the same market in San Francisco advanced, while here there was no change. Receipts of the commodity totaled 45,150 pounds. The buying was well scattered through seconds and ladle butter, in addition to a good call for extras.

HE ALMOST GOT LOST IN OLD HOME TOWN

M. H. Hickey Returns to Santa Ana First Time Since 1878; Did Not Know the Place

For the first time since he left Santa Ana in 1878, M. H. Hickey today saw this city. He had a mighty hard time getting locations, and but for the guidance of his nephew, Victor Martin of Los Angeles, he would not have known Fourth street from any other prosperous street of any prosperous town.

YOUR HAIR NEEDS PARISIAN SAGE

It Quickly Removes Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair and Scalp Itch

Just because your hair is full of dandruff, thin, streaky, dull and never will do up to look pretty, do not think it must be so. Beautiful hair, thick, fluffy, lustrous and absolutely free from dandruff is only a matter of care. Parisian Sage frequently applied and well rubbed into the scalp will work wonders. Just one application stops itching head, removes dandruff and all excessive oil. It goes right to the hair roots and furnishes the nourishment needed—the hair becomes soft, wavy, abundant and radiant with life.

Paris Sage, which can be had at any drug or toilet counter, not only saves the hair but stimulates it to grow long and heavy. Get a 50 cent bottle from Rowley Drug Co. at once. There is no other "Just-as-good."—Advertisement.

ey, "and I guess that is it," pointing to Spangler's shop, and the English family lived at that house down there by the big sycamore."

Of course, Hickey knew the Spurgeon family. "I remember when I was a kid about eight years old," said he. "My father was the Baptist preacher in Santa Ana. We lived down in Gospel Swamp. Mr. Spurgeon and Miss Jane English were to be married, and we got ready to start for the wedding. They made me put on shoes and stockings. Just before we started I pulled them off. We got well on the road when the folks found I was barefooted, and we turned around and went back after those shoes and stockings. I remember the occasion well indeed, for I most certainly got a warming-up."

Hickey's folks went to Arizona in 1878, when he was 12 years old. He lived in Phoenix and other places in Arizona and Mexico. For several months he has been living in San Francisco, and is now on his way back to Mexico. He will spend a week visiting his sisters, Mrs. Mayhew of Garden Grove and Mrs. W. O. English of San Juan Capistrano.

"My sister sent me a copy of the special edition of the Register," said he, "and I pored over every line of it. It was a great story of advancement."

HANGED A NEGRESS

WAGONER, Okla., March 31.—Mary Scott, a negress, was hanged to a telephone pole early today by one hundred masked men. The woman stabbed Lemuel Peace, a white man, Sunday night. He died later from the wound. A mob went to the jail at daylight, covered the jailer with shoguns, put a rope around the woman's neck and strung her to a telephone pole about a block away. She made no outcry and the lynching was conducted so quietly that the town was not aroused.

STUMPS UNDER THE CUT WOOD

Santiago Serna was fined $5 today after Justice Cox had heard a case with a number of unusual features connected with it. Santiago cut apricot wood for L. R. Klatt at $1.25 a tier, and in two tiers thirteen stumps were found. Santiago pleaded no guilt to the charge, and the trial was held today.

Klatt testified that he held out $2 of Santiago's pay because Santiago broke a shovel worth about forty or fifty cents and because some of the wood was over a foot long. When Klatt went to sell the wood he found the stumps.

Justice Cox was satisfied that Santiago put the stumps in the pile to even things up with Klatt for charging him so much for an old shovel, but the evidence showed Santiago guilty. After the sentence, Klatt started to explain to the justice, and the justice turned loose with a vivid description of what he thought of Klatt for holding out the $2 on the Mexican.

Then Interpreter Meyer, who had been holding a quiet talk with Santiago, said that by way of conversation, now that the case was all settled, Santiago wished to say that he knew the stumps were put in the cut wood, but that his partner had done it and his partner is now in Mexico.

County Sealer George McPhee, who had been called into the case on the theory of short measure, testified that he examined the wood and found thirteen stumps in it with the cut wood neatly piled around them. There was no action on short measure, as no wood had been sold.

Several times since, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have been satisfactory in every way. I give them credit for keeping me well.
